WE HAVE SOMETHING IN COMMON

Discover • Connect • Keep It Alive

BIG QUESTION
How much do we have in common?

YOUR GOAL
Discover similarities, ask one more question, and keep a real conversation moving.

Before Class — 5 Minutes

- Think of one food you love or dislike.
- Think of music you enjoy.
- Think of one thing about your family.
- Think of one habit or routine you have.
- Think of one place you want to visit.
- Think of something you want to do or learn.

COME CURIOUS, NOT REHEARSED
No speech. No memorizing. No translating every sentence. Bring ideas and useful words; we will build the English together.

The Skill: ASK → FIND → EXPLORE

ASK
Discover something.
“Do you like traveling?”

FIND
Notice the connection.
“Me too!” • “Same here!” • “We have that in common!”

EXPLORE
Go one step deeper.
“What’s your favorite place?” • “Why?” • “How often?” • “Tell me more!”

Don’t stop at “Me too!” — that’s where the conversation starts.

Useful English

REACT
Really? • No way! • That's interesting! • I get that. • That's funny!

ASK
Do you like…? • Do you ever…? • Have you ever…? • What kind of…?

FIND
Me too! • Same here! • I do too! • So do I! • We have that in common!

EXPLORE
Why? • How often? • What about you? • What's your favorite…? • Tell me more!

Question Bank — Use It, Don't Memorize It

FOOD	What food do you love? • Do you like spicy food? • What do you like to cook?
MUSIC	What kind of music do you listen to? • When do you usually listen to music?
FAMILY	Do you have a big family? • What do you like doing with your family?
TRAVEL	Do you like traveling? • Where would you like to go? • What place did you love visiting?
HABITS	Are you a morning person? • What do you usually do on weekends? • What's one habit you have?
DREAMS	What would you like to learn? • What do you really want to do someday?
FUN	Do you sing when nobody is listening? • What always makes you laugh?

Written Conversation Example

NOTICE THE DIFFERENCE
A: "I love cooking."
B: "Me too!"

That finds the connection — but it can stop there.

A: "I love cooking."
B: "Me too! What do you like to cook?"
A: "Mostly Caribbean food."

B: “Really? I love Caribbean food too. What’s your favorite dish?”

ASK → FIND → EXPLORE

Listening Mission

MEET JORD

You will hear ONE person talking naturally about life, habits, family, interests and dreams.

First listen: understand Jordan.
Second listen: notice possible connections with YOUR life.

LISTEN FOR…

- Something you also do
- Something you also like
- A similar family experience
- A place or goal you share
- Something you would like to ask Jordan

What We’ll Do in Class

CONNECT

Raise your hand and notice who shares your likes, habits or experiences.

LISTEN

Listen to Jordan’s monologue and discover possible common ground.

DISCOVER

Practice ASK → FIND → EXPLORE.

INTERACT

Ask the whole group questions and Find Your People.

PLAY

KEEP IT ALIVE! If the conversation dies, the teacher says “NEXT!” and another student jumps in.

SPEAK

Share an unexpected connection you discovered with a classmate.

REFLECT

Notice what one good question helped you discover.

⚡ KEEP IT ALIVE!

THE RULE

Listen carefully — you may need to enter at any moment.

Conversation dies? → Teacher: “NEXT!”
A new student enters FAST and continues from the LAST idea.

You may have about 3 seconds.

NEXT ≠ new topic.
NEXT = SAVE THE CONVERSATION.

How Can I Save It?

- REACT — “Really?” / “No way!” / “I get that.”
- ASK — “Why?” / “How often?” / “What happened?”
- CONNECT — “Me too!” / “That happened to me once.”
- EXPLORE — “Tell me more.” / “What do you like about it?”

Before We Meet Again

YOUR REAL-LIFE MISSION

Find ONE unexpected thing you have in common with someone.

1 ASK one genuine question.
2 FIND the connection.
3 EXPLORE with one more question.

No written report. No memorizing.
Just remember what happened.

REMEMBER

You don’t need perfect English to connect with someone.

Listen • Ask • Notice • Keep going.

No necesitas aprender más inglés. Necesitas English in Action.
